

BOUNCE—One of Canada's top guitarists is back in the studio with a new album. Fans can hear the new music when Paul Deslauriers and his band headline the Beer, Bourbon, BBQ and Blues Festival.

WHISKEY WHISKERS
The Wonderful World of Whisky show attracts over 700 people from across North America, including the distinguished looking Rusty Brown.

SPINNING DISCS—Cornwall celebrated its first ever Record Day thanks to Bud O'Byrne and his new store Bud's Records and Kool Things.

TURNING HEADS
Kelsey MacDonald has been across the world, living her dream modeling for companies as diverse as Maison Birks and Shoppers Drug Mart.

BOXING SIBLINGS—Isha Waheed is the Canadian gold medal champ in the 60kg junior female division and her brother Sahil won bronze in the youth male 60kg division.

CRICKET IN THE PARK—New residents are making Cornwall feel more like home. This group worked with City of Cornwall staff to install a cricket field at Snetsinger Park. All are welcome to join in on a game during summer weekends!

NATIONALS—The Benson Centre was host to the 2019 Canadian Broomball Championships, bringing hundreds of athletes, coaches and fans to Cornwall.

GARLIC GOODNESS—Looking for a good shawarma? Look no further than Cedars at the Cornwall Square. Fans line-up for the fresh Mediterranean treat 7 days a week.

EURO TRIP—FanSaves is going to Germany to pitch their mobile app to an international audience. FanSaves offers discounts on over 30 Cornwall restaurants and retailers.

RECONCILIATION—A painting by Holy Trinity art students depicting their vision of Reconciliation was selected to be part of the “Imagine a Canada” national arts and leadership initiative.

MARVELOUS MEL—Melanie Brulée released the western-themed album Fires, Floods and Things We Leave Behind earlier this year.

ARTS CENTRE—Fundraising is underway to support the development of a multi-discipline arts centre in Downtown Cornwall.

NURSE HAND ME MY PEN

Melissa Yi is the nom de plume of local doctor Melissa Yuan-Innes who has just signed a 3-book deal with Kobo.

LUCKY LURES

Even fish are choosing Cornwall, thanks to these shiny new lures from ChooseCornwall.ca.

TREE GIVEAWAY—40,000 young trees are growing in the region, in part thanks to the annual Earth Day tree giveaway by the Raisin Region Conservation Authority.

HURRY HARD—Skip Matt Dupuis and his rink represented Cornwall as curling club champions, taking home gold in the Provincial competition and placing third in the Canadian championships.

GAME ON—With the launch of MeepleMobile, Jonathan Ramundi is bringing something new to the table for game lovers - namely a collection of over 100 board games.